We have a nationwide network of installers ready to take on your next challenge.

Richmond Raceway
Richmond, Virginia

Your story, Stories up.

Enjoy having peace of mind when you partner with our experienced installation team. With over 50 years of combined experience, our team can offer solutions for any challenge you face, at any scale.

From large format building banners to spot decals on vehicles, we have a dedicated network of signage installers across the country ready to take on any project no matter the size. It's this installation network that allows us to be your one stop shop for all installation needs.

Showcase it, Don't just tell.

Our dimensional copy will bring your message to new heights. We utilize a variety of materials including PVC, foamboard, acrylic, and aluminum composite material - all cut to precision using our top-of-the-line Zund CNC Routing machine.

Dimensional copy is an attention-grabbing way to display your message, as it can be adhered directly to the wall. To create an even more unique and eye-catching look, dimensional elements can be applied over other signage, sit on a rail, or even be suspended from above.

Your mark. Get set, Go.

Many business vehicles can do more than just transport. Increase your marketing potential with minimal effort. Wheelhouse Graphix can design, print, and install your vehicle wraps and help distinguish you from industry rivals.

Increase your visibility and attract more customers with a full or partial vehicle wrap, lettering, or removable magnets. Utilize reflective materials for larger trucks, and incorporate perforated window vinyl for complete coverage to make your vehicle attract the right attention and showcase your brand.

Use one-way perforated window vinyl to brighten your exterior or office.

Jonna's Market
Westland, Michigan

The inside, Looking out.

Looking to cover up messy remodeling until you host your grand opening? Have an interior office you'd like to create some privacy for, while still maintaining a clear view through the glass from within? Transform plain, empty windows with a custom design.

Perforated window vinyl appeals to a variety of clients by creating a welcoming and bright impression of their business. The one-way vinyl gives you the ability to see through the windows from the inside, while displaying an appealing design on the outside. No matter how large or small your business, utilizing empty window space is a smart investment.

Hang it up, Swap it out.

Framed textiles offer a stunning way to transform your space. Wheelhouse Graphix has unparalleled expertise in direct-to-fabric printing. We use lightweight framing systems and produce vivid color graphics.

Framed fabrics are perfect for making an impact, and the possibilities are endless. The option is versatile, stylish, and best of all: it's quick and easy to change out, allowing you to update and refresh your image or message at any time
